

Sunday Notes

First Church Happenings for the week of December 1, 2024

Sunday Worship

"A poet is, before anything else, a person who is passionately in love with language" -- W. H. Auden

I think of myself as an artist – a poet – more than a preacher. I pray, in any case, that my love of language is evident in my published writing and public witnessing. Sunday's message is inspired by the work of an actual American poet. Interestingly, not much of her art was published during her lifetime. After she died in 1886, her sister discovered a store of poems which eventually gained public attention in 1955 when the scholar Thomas H. Johnson published The Poems of Emily Dickinson.

The sermon is entitled: Hope Is the Thing with Feathers. The basic idea is that hope doesn't just come from above (or beyond) us. It dwells within us too! I'll say more when I see you.

Yours with Advent anticipation,
Rev. Fredd

Altar Flowers

Our altar flowers are donated this week in honor of Rev. Fredd, in celebration of his 1-year anniversary as Senior Pastor at First Church.

For the first time in several years, the Festival will be open Saturday, December 7 from 10-1pm. Come see the 50 decorated trees and win a tree or gift card present. All proceeds go to the church's Mission Partners. The drawing for the winners will be on Sunday, December 8, when you will have another opportunity to see the trees. Volunteers are still needed to help with the Festival. See Eleanor Wight, Amy Melvin, or Ginny Vocelli.

Share A Gift Tree for Our Covenant to Care Children

'Tis the season to share Christmas joy! Take a tag from the tree in the auditorium starting November 24 and bring the unwrapped gift to the church by December 15. Thank you for helping our Covenant to Care children have a Merry Christmas! For any questions, please contact Diane Bohman at dmbhoman@comcast.net or Molly Bohman at jpwebsterlib@whfirstchurch.org.

After the GHIAA Campaign Kick-off, now what?

Ten members and friends of First Church participated in the Campaign Kick-off on November 21, and now it's time to get to work!

GHIAA is forming town-by-town Housing Affordability Teams (HATs) to look into what each town needs to do to remove its own barriers to affordable housing. A HAT team is forming in West Hartford, as well as in many other towns. If you are interested in joining a team, contact Linda (lindadiane275@gmail.com) or Terry (terryschmittwh@gmail.com).

Also, First Church needs to fulfill its commitment, as a founding member of GHIAA, to contribute $5000 each calendar year to help pay for the staff that keeps GHIAA functioning and the materials and events that make it possible to get the work for justice done. Every year our Outreach Team contributes $2500, and the rest needs to come from individual donations. So far in 2024, donations total $850. If you can help -- whether it's $5 or $500 -- please make your donation soon. If you give online or by text, you will find GHIAA is one of the categories you can designate your gift for. If you donate by check, please write "GHIAA" in the memo line. Thank you for your support, financial and otherwise!

Thank you to everyone who donated food for the Thanksgiving Baskets for Covenant to Care! Together we filled baskets for 27 families. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Hat and Mitten Collection for Covenant to Care -- and Sock Collection for The House of Bread

Now through December 31, we will be collecting new or gently worn mittens, hats, scarves, and other winter clothing for Covenant to Care! We will also be collecting NEW socks for The House of Bread. Please bring items to the church and look for designated boxes for collection. Thank you!

Christmas Fund

The Christmas Fund has been caring for active and retired clergy and lay employees of the United Church of Christ for over 100 years, providing emergency grants, supplementation of small annuities and health premiums, and Christmas "Thank You" gift checks each December to our lower-income retirees. The Christmas Fund for the Veterans of the Cross and the Emergency Fund is one of the UCC's special mission offerings. Individuals can also donate directly online or by mail. The Christmas Fund for Veterans of the Cross is managed by the Pension Boards. Get more information here.

Everyone is welcome -- church membership is not required! Come in and find your next read!

In the JPWL Gallery

We are honored to present the work of three women artists: Dolores Howard, Michelle Peterson, and Michele Quinn. "Reveries and Reflections: Three Local Artists" will be on display from December 1 through January 12 in the JPW Gallery and in the Alcove to the right of the Rotunda Entrance. Many of the pieces are for sale, with a portion donated to First Church. Please see Jennifer with any questions.

A Great Green Gift

Here's your opportunity for local, "green" gift buying! Jennifer has arranged for 11 old church banners to be recycled into one-of-a-kind First Church-branded totes and clutches. The items will be for sale during Hospitality Hour. The clutches are $10 each or 3 for $25. The totes are $20 each. Any proceeds will be used by the Outreach Team to support nearby environmental charities.

Faithful Fitness Classes Continue

The JPWL invites you to attend, or continue attending, a free Faithful Fitness class! Each class provides an opportunity for meditation as well as movement. Perfect attendance is not required – it's ok to miss a couple of classes. More information is available on each class's registration page:

- Qi Gong with Cynthia Hoag resumes Thursday, December 5 from 10:30-11:30 a.m. in the Chapel. QiGong, a Chinese exercise that promotes the flow of qi, or energy, in the body, can reduce stress, depression, or fatigue while providing a sense of balance and clarity. Each session will conclude with a short meditation. More info and registration here.
- FitMix with Kathi Boratko will resume Tuesday, January 7 from 5:30 – 6:30 p.m., in the Auditorium. This is a well-rounded class including resistance training, cardio, and balance using multiple fitness modalities. Chairs will be used for seated and standing support. Please bring a mat, light weights, and a small ball. No tools? No worries! Some tools can be provided. Register here to join the class!

G.O.A.T.* Bible Study!

Sundays from 9-9:45 a.m. in the Friendship Room (305)

Join Rev. Tom Carr for a deep dive into the book of Isaiah! Explore historical contexts, find out who was duped (and by whom), and see how and where the Gospels echo the ancient Hebrew Bible. "Tom's engaging style and knowledge of scripture have really helped me understand the Bible's ongoing story and meaning in our own lives" (participant). Bibles provided; register here. *Greatest Of All Time!

Book Group News:

The John P. Webster Library coordinates and sponsors two book groups that meet regularly in the library. Copies of the books are provided for participants. New members are always welcome to either group! For more information, please contact Jennifer or Molly at 860-232-3893 or at jpwllibrary@whfirstchurch.org.

- Awakening the Spirit - Meets every Monday from 12-1:30 p.m. - Rev. Tom Carr, facilitator
On December 2 we begin discussing The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness by Gregory Boyle. In this follow-up to Tattoos on the Heart and Barking to the Choir, Boyle is "incandescent, always hope-filled, and often hilarious, sprinkling his narratives with theological and spiritual reflections from a variety of theologians, poets, and other writers" (Christian Century). Don't miss reading this encouraging and uplifting book!
- Food for Thought - Meets on first Tuesdays of the month from 5-6:30 p.m. - JPW Library Staff, facilitators
Next Meeting: December 3 – God, Grace, and Horses: Life Lessons from the Saddle by Laurie Brock. From barely-there trails in the Grand Tetons to muddy fields in the Kentucky Bluegrass, God is revealed in the simple ways of these magnificent creatures. For anyone feeling doubtful, distracted, or anxious in these challenging times, Brock brings us back to center, reminding us to breathe, get back on the saddle, and move beyond the familiar into the freedom of something new.
- Believe in YourSHELF Tween Book Group
Sunday, December 15 at 10 a.m. - Facilitated by Molly Bohman, JPWL Assistant Librarian
For students in Grades 6-8: We meet (with snacks!) on the third Sunday of the month in the Library. Our next book is Invisible by Christina Diaz Gonzalez, illustrated by Gabriela Epstein "Five students meet in the school cafeteria when they're forced to complete their school community service hours. Even though their school administration has decided that they all belong together, none of the kids wants to be there. But when they encounter someone who truly needs their help, they might just be able to come together to work as a team—and help their community—after all" (back cover) Questions? See Molly at the Book Mobile or in the JPW Library.
