

Sunday Notes

First Church Happenings for the week of February 9, 2025

Sunday Worship

"Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets." – Luke 5:1-2

So begins Luke's version of the story of Jesus calling Simon Peter and James and John while they were busy at work. I have a feeling that you're familiar with the fact that they ultimately left their nets to follow Jesus in direct response to a miraculous catch of fish. According to the account, Simon was amazed and also afraid (you could hardly blame him). Jesus assured Simon: "from now on you will be catching people."

This Sunday, shall we gather at the river where we'll surely hear the Savior's ancient assurance echoing across the ages. We, too, are called to always be casting our nets for the gospel's sake. I'll say more when I see you. The sermon based on (Luke 5:1-11) is entitled: ABC's.

By the way. Sunday. The Hot Cat Jazz Band is back. Again! Amen!

Be blessed. Be a blessing.

Rev. Fredd

February Reach Out: Support California Wildfire first responders and impacted families

Fueled by powerful winds and dry conditions, wildfires erupted on January 7 and roared across the Los Angeles area, killing at least 28 people. Over 200,000 people were under evacuation orders as crews tried to battle back the fires. The fires have destroyed entire neighborhoods and blocks, leaving an unknown number of people homeless. The insured losses from the fires may exceed $20 billion, and total economic losses could reach $50 billion!

First Church Outreach team responding to the need has chosen to donate to the UCC's California Wildfire 2025 appeal and The World Central Kitchen to support first responders and families impacted by wildfires in the Los Angeles area.

To learn more and donate please use the links provided, or donate in church (note UCC or WCK on your envelope) or online through the church: <https://whfirstchurch.ccbchurch.com/goto/giving> (Designation>Reach Out Monthly Collection).

Small Things Like These by Claire Keegan. 1985: As Christmas approaches, Bill Furlong finds himself troubled by a sense of dissatisfaction. A coal and timber merchant living in New Ross, Ireland, he should be happy with his life: He is happily married and the father of five bright daughters, and he runs a successful business. But a series of troubling encounters at the local convent, which also functions as a laundry business and a "training school for girls," forces Furlong to confront both his past and the complicit silences of a town controlled by the church. A deeply affecting story of hope, quiet heroism, and empathy.

Facilitated by Molly Bohman, JPWL Assistant Librarian

Anya has taken on the responsibility of Moth Keeper for the night village, shepherding the lunar moths her people rely on to sustain the annual blooming of a flower necessary to their night-dwelling ways. However, she grows weary from her strenuous duties and, feeling a pull to experience life in the daylight, decides to visit the sunlit day world. When she glimpses the one thing that could destroy what she's meant to protect, her village and the lunar moths are left to deal with the consequences. K. O'Neill brings to life a beautifully illustrated fantasy with lush, gorgeous art and intricate world-building (Amazon.com)
